

TRAVELING DURING COVID-19

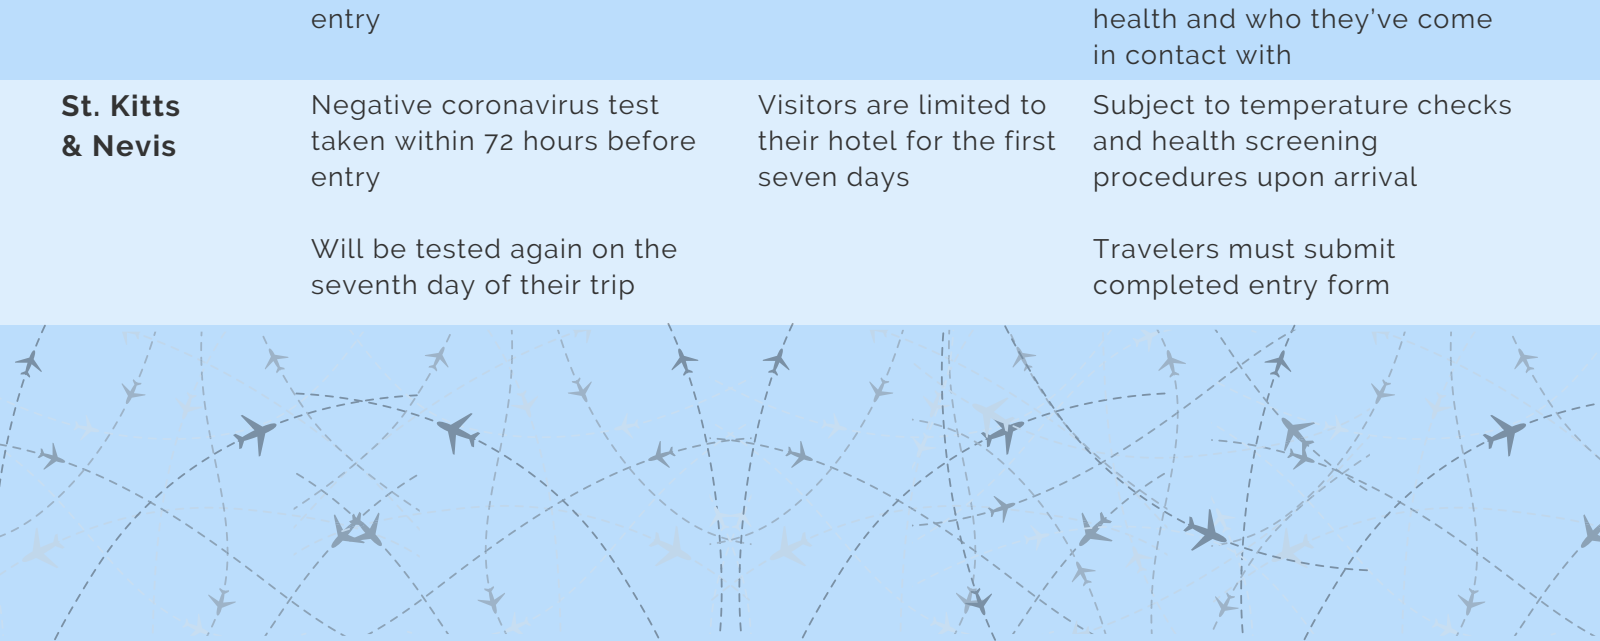

A GUIDE OF RULES AND REGULATIONS IMPOSED BY EACH COUNTRY

The chart below breaks down the COVID-19 travel regulations imposed by each country and gives you the details you need to know. Many countries that have still banned international visitors, or visitors from “hot zones” like the U.S. are not listed. We would still suggest visiting the embassy website of the country you’re going to to clarify prior to confirming your travel plans. The U.S. Department of State also has up to date information on travel restrictions in each country as well as access to resources you may need while abroad or during an emergency.
